By submitting this application, we affirm that we have read and understand that we must follow Chapter 30, Article 27, Series 13, of West Virginia State Code and we affirm that the required documentation submitted with this application is true and that without the documents above, we will be rejected authorization to participate in the Barber Apprenticeship Program. We understand that the apprenticeship program is designed for education where the apprenticeship provider is the instructor and the apprentice is the student. We further understand that theory work from the text book must be taught, demonstrations must be provided, and hands-on experience must be performed as part of the apprenticeship program.
